

The President delivering his address over the body of America's Unknown Soldier in the amphitheatre of the national cemetery at Arlington.

(c) Harris & Ewing.

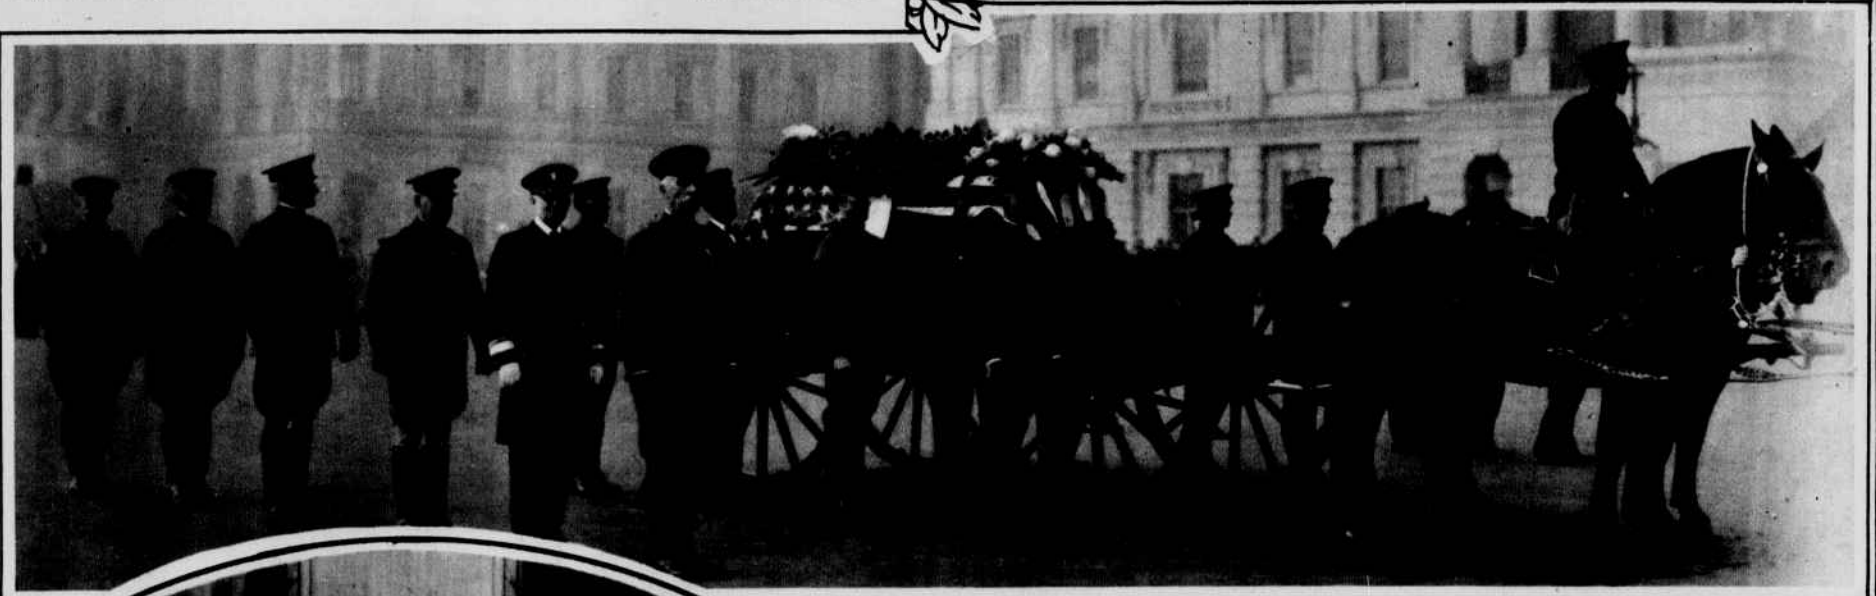

Army bugler sounds "taps" at the close of the ceremonies at Arlington.

Central News.

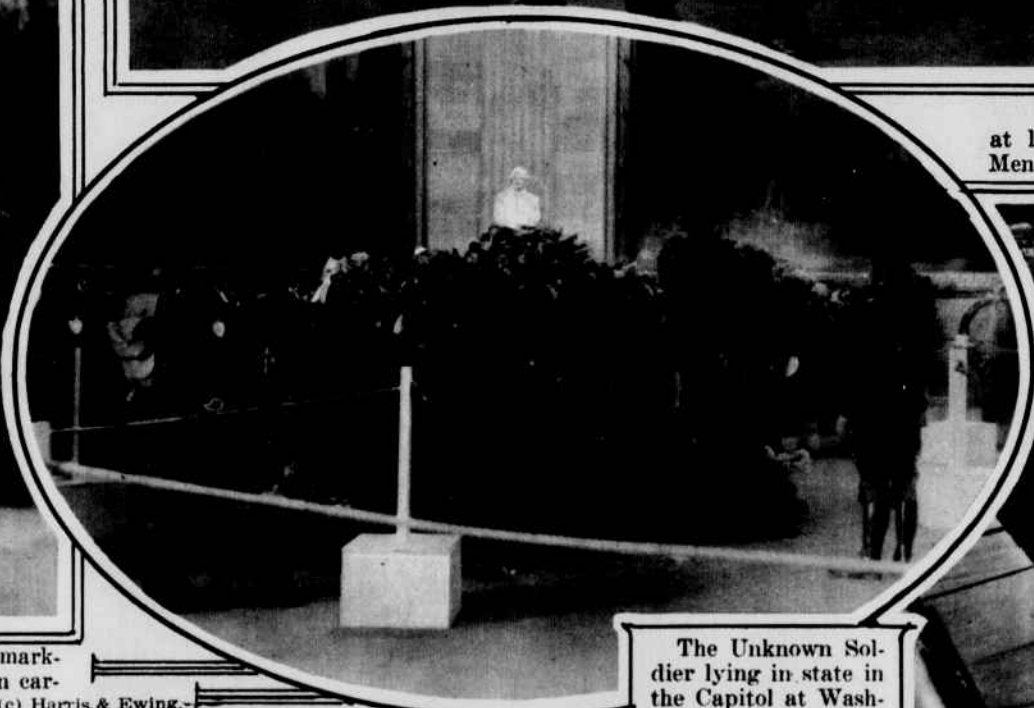

Former President Wilson was the recipient of a remarkable tribute as he drove with Mrs. Wilson in an open carriage. The photograph shows him leaving his house.

The flag draped coffin of the Unknown Soldier leaving the Capitol. In the group at left are Gen. Morton, Admiral Wilson, Gen. Harbord, Gen. Edwards, Gen. Menoher, Gen. O'Ryan.

International.

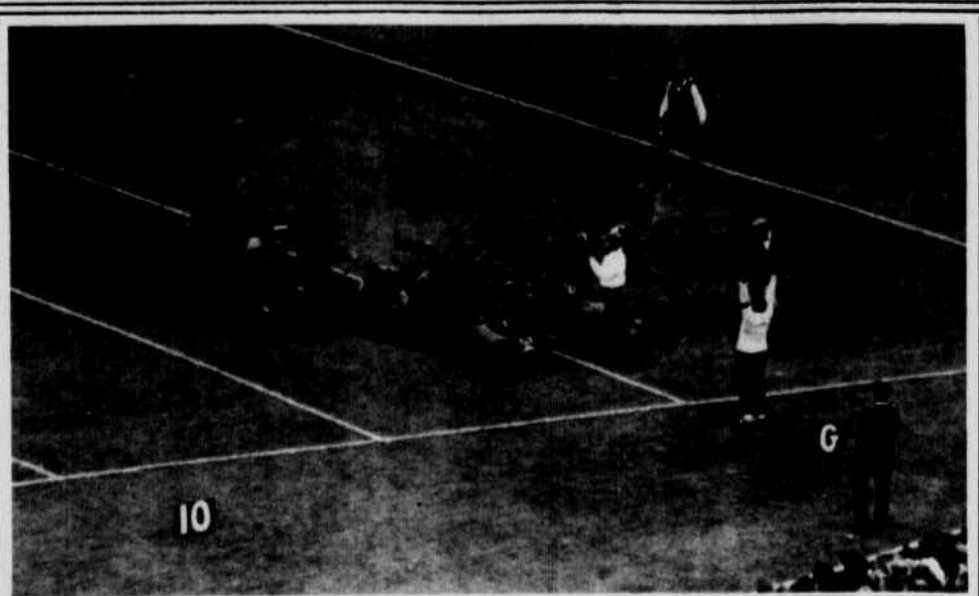

The Unknown Soldier lying in state in the Capitol at Washington. Wreaths, including those from foreign Governments, almost hid the coffin.

(c) Keystone View Co.

Above—Aldrich of Yale plunging through Princeton's line for a gain of 7 yards in the game at New Haven.

Underwood & Underwood.

At left—Garity of Princeton makes the only touchdown for old Nassau.

(c) Paul Thompson.

Great crowds in Madison Square Park heard President Harding's speech as he delivered it at Arlington. In the foreground are the voice amplifiers which made this possible.

Morris Rosenfeld.

Interior view of Madison Square Garden during the delivery of the President's oration at the grave of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington. The great audience is singing the national anthem.

Morris Rosenfeld.